May Hospice Volunteer Training

There are many reasons why people choose to volunteer, and hospice volunteering can provide a meaningful way to give back and help others. Hospice volunteers offer important support and care to patients and their families. You can discuss your interests, availability, and talents with us at VNA & Hospice of the Southwest Region, and we'll help find a volunteer opportunity that suits you.

Please join us for this in-person training session. Pre-registration is required.

Friday, May 17, 2024
